UM OFFERS GRANT-WRITING WORKSHOP IN GREAT FALLS

MISSOULA --

Representatives of non-profit agencies, business people, educators and others interested in learning or improving grant-writing skills are invited to attend a two-and-a-half day workshop in Great Falls sponsored by The University of Montana—Missoula Wednesday through Friday, Feb. 7-9.

"The Art of Successful Grant Writing" is scheduled from 1 to 5 p.m. Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday at the Heritage Inn. The workshop is designed to develop and strengthen grant-writing skills and provide a foundation for fulfilling the requirements of most funding sources.

The $150 workshop fee includes lunch on Thursday and a comprehensive workbook that will equip participants with the tools to write a successful proposal.

The workshop will be led by Richard B. Offner, a national consultant on grant writing, organizational development and strategic planning. Workshop participants will gain understanding of the components of the grant-writing process, including developing an application, writing goals and objectives, devising an evaluation plan, producing a budget, locating funding sources and marketing the project.

For more information or to register, call UM's Center for Continuing Education, (406) 243-2164.
